

COMMUNITY HOUSING PARTNERSHIP

Breaking the cycle of homelessness

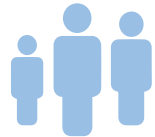

Community Housing Partnership's mission is to help homeless people secure housing and become self-sufficient.

Because we believe in the importance of a home, we build and manage high quality supportive housing in San Francisco for formerly homeless individuals. Our comprehensive services include case management, employment services, family and youth programs, community organizing, and resident engagement.

CHP has 14 supportive housing buildings in San Francisco

We impact 1,500 adults, seniors, and children each year

OUR LATEST ACCOMPLISHMENTS

REAL ESTATE

Won the 2014

Award of Merit for Best Affordable Project from PCBC (Rene Cazenave Apartments)

PROPERTY MANAGEMENT

Created 188

new homes last year for homeless individuals, bringing our total to 1000+ homes

SUPPORT SERVICES

Added new programs to help our tenants increase life skills, build their self-sufficiency, and become leaders

EMPLOYMENT PATHWAY

Employed 150

people in our social enterprise, launched our Learning Academy, and opened a state-of-the-art Training Center

COMMUNITY ORGANIZING & RESIDENT ENGAGEMENT

Successfully passed the Fair Chance Ordinance with partners, removing a barrier to employment for many people in San Francisco
